PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

The 159th AGM of the club will take place on Wednesday, 22 August 2018 and all members are warmly invited. A formal notice of the AGM will be sent shortly. It is proposed that the President will serve a second year and there will be vacancies for two new committee members. Two members have expressed interest in these positions. The annual report will be sent electronically but a hard copy will be made available to any member who requires it.

The AGM will be followed by a dinner.

The Club has had a busy trading month in June although July has been quieter.

If you are at the club then please introduce yourself to Dean Reed our new Membership and Communications Officer. Dean works on Tuesdays and Thursdays and part Wednesday. Dean will now be sending out our newsletters and event notices.

The monthly speakers lunch and Friday night dinners are proving popular.

The next Fernhill Whisky Club evening is on Thursday, 23 August 2018. You are welcome to sign up for any event by a phone call or email to the Club or put your name down on the lists in the office

Manager's Message

Dear Members

As Winter progresses and the school holidays come and go, July was indeed a quiet trading month but the staff team are grateful for the opportunity to catch up on many outstanding tasks and a return to more normal working hours.

The staff restructure has provided a more flexible staffing arrangement and this will reflect in a better front of house wage cost. The orientation and training of Dean Reed in the new role of Membership and Communications Officer is progressing well and we are working toward new Club Events and improved communication formats. We have engaged the services of a Hospitality staffing agency from Christchurch who recently began operating in Dunedin. The agency is providing us with chefs and kitchen staff as required to support the kitchen operations and this arrangement finally provides the Club with a means to deal with staffing shortfalls during busy trading periods.

Otherwise, thank you for your patronage and we look forward to seeing you at the Club soon.
